S&B AIG Meeting & Blue-White Game Tailgate

Nancy Narcum has been working with the Alumni Association to set up a Skull & Bones Alumni Interest Group. I've been helping Nancy to get our membership list up to date in the Alumni Association's computers. You should have received preliminary information on the AIG from Nancy earlier this year. Our first organizational meeting will be Friday, April 19, at the Scanticon Lower Lounge, check the message for the exact room location. There will be a cash bar reception from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m., then we will begin the meeting. This is the weekend of the Blue-White game so dress is casual. Any questions call Nancy Narcum at 814-865-3166. You are also invited to join us on Saturday morning at our Blue-White game tailgate hosted by the Spring 1996 Tap Class.

ALUMNINEWS

Kristin Alexander - 4713 Manor Lane, Ellicott City MD 21042, 301-596-1182 - I'm now working in Maryland on the eastern shore of the Chesapeake Bay, teaching at an outdoor school.

Robin Bronk Weiss - 2627 Colston Drive, Chevy Chase MD 20815, 301-608-9347 - We have a new guest room so if any of you are in the Washington DC area please give us a call.

April Campbell - new address: 4402 Four Seasons #663, Hilton Head SC 29926.

Tom & Mary Cooley - 2335 Steinsburg Road, Quakertown PA 18951, 215-529-9322 - I'm currently the Nutrition Services Director at St. Luke's Hospital in Bethlehem, PA. This makes me the administrative dietitian for 2500 plus meals daily. Our son Patrick (6 and in first grade) and our twins, William and Elizabeth (2), keep us pretty busy. I'm also active in several professional dietetic organizations. Eves, Glazier, Cluck, Hook & Naginey: Great to see you on 10/22! Now that the kids are sleeping, I'd love to see you all more often. Don't forget to save Mount Nittany!

Kevin Cripasuk - 2210-106 Brentwood Road, Raleigh NC 27604, 919-954-9807 - The training for the 1996 Olympics continues, only a few months left to prepare.

Zaneeta Daver - 42 Versailles Court, Hamilton NJ 08619, 609-584-1903 - I was promoted to Assistant Manager of Quick Response at Strawbridge & Clothier in August but I'm still trying desperately to get out of retail. Hopefully, next fall I'll be back in school working on my Master's. Poncho & Meather: Remember to keep breathing and don't forget your friends. Ricki: Is the Lion married now?

Brian Del Buono - new address: 7734 Mulberry Branch Lane, Springfield VA 22153

Mary Ann Deno Brock - 5335 Oldham Street, Lincoln NE 68506, 402-484-7753 - The big news is that a new Baby Brock is due in late June 1996. Tony, Sara and I are enjoying the house we bought in June. The privacy and additional space for living and storage feel luxurious. The shaded yard is pretty, with just enough lawn to care for and enjoy. Meanwhile, working for Herb Friedman remains unchanged, except for the occasional temper flare of the boss, I like the job. Tony passed the South Dakota bar and is now licensed to practice in both Nebraska and South Dakota. Meanwhile, he continues to run marathons. Sara likes to, "run, run, run, like Daddy does." Sara loves visitors too, I hope that many of you will be able to visit us this year.

Lanny Dillon - new address: 7526 Republic Court, Alexandria VA 22306

Adam Dombchik - 1717 Stoner Avenue # 108, Los Angeles CA 90025, 310-207-0851, e-mail: nitanylyn@aol.com - Still working as a paralegal for worker's compensation attorney and attending Southwestern University School of Law at night. So much for a PSU appearance at the Rose Bowl '96. I knew it was a mistake to change my password on my computer at work to ROSEBOWL. What can I say, always the optimist. Kevin C.: How goes it? Where are you these days? Gillespie: Are you still taking classes? Still teaching? Heather L.: What have you been up to since you returned to the US? Kimberly S.: Hawaii!! Sounds fantastic. If you make it to the mainland and come through LA, give me a call. JJ: Surprise! Shiner, LaFlam, Waldo: Square dancin' lately? To Everyone: you have an e-mail account, drop me a note!

Amy Dorenfeld Steinberg - 1633 N. Prospect Avenue #3C, Milwaukee WI 53202, 414-224-1557 - I recently completed my master's degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin. weakness slide! Married life is fantastic! Our door is always open to visitors, so come see us! Darryl Bundridge: Congrats on your awesome job! I'm so happy for you! Joe Jorczak: Hello buddy, I miss you too! Todd Levin: Welcome to the wonderful Midwest. Tom Dymek - new address: 102 Union Avenue, Bala Cynwyd PA 19004, 610-667-2147.

Mary Anne Eves - see top of newsletter -Obviously I've been very busy since 1996 started or you would have gotten this newsletter sooner. In January I started taking a Wednesday night architectural history class at the Foundation for Architecture in Philadelphia as preparation to become a volunteer guide. The Foundation has over 50 architectural walking tours in Philadelphia and the four surrounding counties. I will be giving a tour of the beautiful Victorian buildings in my hometown of Media. If you would like a copy of the Foundation's tour schedule please give me a call. I'm still working as a consultant to PECO Energy. It has been fun having the flexibility to take off when I want to for museum shows or lectures, but I'm now starting to look for something permanent with benefits. I'm going to Arizona for a week at the end of April (so I'll miss seeing you at the AIG meeting and the Blue-White game) and hope to find something new to do in May. I still hope to start a part-time master's program this fall in Historic Preservation or Architectural History. The work and life of Frank Lloyd Wright will most likely be the subject my thesis, so I expect to be in and out of the Chicago area. Any Windy City S&Bers who are willing to host a poor grad student on an occasional weekend please let me know. Bronk: Don't forget to call when the cherry blossoms bloom. Jen Gould: I'll let you know when the Foundation tour of Narberth will be, then I'll collect on your promise of dinner. Barry Puschauer: I expect to see you the next time I'm in DC! Pieface: Looking forward to hanging out at your pool, winter just won't quit here on the east coast. See you in a couple weeks. Joe Martz: Thanks for your help with the NYC museum. I'm in and out of Philly on a regular basis, call and let me know when I can take you out for a drink.

John Hook & Jackie Naginey - 8044 Lesia Circle, Orlando FL 32835, 407-290-8159 - Our daughter Jessica celebrated her first birthday on Dec. 29, 1995. She is sweet, happy, and full of life. She also is a very busy girl who has her own agenda of what needs to be done. John is still selling billboards for the largest billboard company in central Florida and Jackie has the best job she's ever had, home taking care of Jessica. Please let us know if any of you will be in the Orlando area, remember you are always welcome.

Ken Hong - Kang Seo Gu, Hwa Gok 6 Dong 979-22 Ho (22/5), Seoul KOREA 157016 - Relocated to Seoul in September '95 and landed a position at the Dong-Ah Daily, one of the largest national daily newspapers in Korea. I'm helping them develop new programs and projects, concentrating in the area of English education. I haven't run into too many Penn Staters out here, just one, to be exact. My goal for 1996 is to find more time to see more of this hemisphere. Tom Lynch: Sounds like you and Andrea are doing well. Enjoy the view! Beth Metzger Gruber: Howdy! Yes, Steve Siegel is alive, well, and married, and I have a hard time getting him to write as well. Steve Siegel: Send me and update! Mary Anne: Thanks for keeping me informed half a world away.

Bruce J. Kent - 115 Croton Road, Flemington NJ 08822, 980-782-1155 - I have been named the head of Managed Healthcare Operations for Ciba. For the first time since Penn State I have to go into an office each day, although I have employees all through the nation. It has been an adjustment. We moved to a small town just outside Flemington and the kids are adjusting. Alexandra started school in the fall and Connor spends his time playing with the animals on our mini-farm.

Heather Liszka - 425 N. Neville Street #102, Pittsburgh PA 15213, 412-681-6772, e-mail: hals+10+@pitt.edu - I'm back from my Fulbright in Italy and have started my studies at the University of Pittsburgh's School of Medicine. Needless to say, I'm as busy as usual squeezing in as many volunteer activities as possible. Jeff K: Where are you? I wrote you an email to PSU. Poncho: I AM still alive. Mark S: Always good to hear from you. Fiti: How's life? Call or write!! Craig Ashford: When are you going to bring that tire over?

Jeanette Morris Smith - 3703 Merrimac Trail, Annandale VA 22003-1547, 703-560-5108 - The big news of 1995 was the arrival on October 3rd of Sawyer Allen Smith. Doug and I had occasionally toyed with the idea of having a third child, but hadn't taken it too seriously given our ever advancing age. However, early in 1995 we found out that we had to take the idea a lot more seriously. Sawyer is a wonderful baby, eats well, smiles a lot, and is exceptionally cute. Tory and Macy are both thrilled to be big brothers, especially Macy who no longer has to be low man on the totem pole. I'm enjoying my stint as a full time Mom, quite a change from 23 years of work outside the home. Doug is in his 17th year at American Management Systems and as of Jan. 1995, has been Chief Financial Officer of his division. We hope all of you are well.

Christopher Redmond - 569 Park Ridge Drive, Wayne PA 19087, 610-687-1960 (voice mail 215-817-1092) - Just wrapped the second of two back to back Movies of the Week for CBS in the position of construction foreman. "Murderous Intent" is a stupid movie, "Zero Tolerance" may be good, beautiful sets if I do day so. Look for the release of the feature film "c/o The Spitfire Grill", I was Assistant Prop Master on that one. Almost no personal life when working 85 hours over 6 days a week. I'm sharing a house in Wilmington, NC on location with my beautiful accountant girlfriend, Kathi, but I barely get to see her. Laurie Dieffenbach: Nags Head was a blast. Let's try the islands next year. Jim Phillips: Hey, call once in a while. You eat worms! It's true. Julie Papalia: How's life in Austin? Call my voice mail, I'm never home in Philly.

Stephen Ripp - 65 Magnolia A venue. Garden City NY I 1530, 516-741-9669 -Finished my MBA at Fordham University in NYC last spring and am finally finished sleeping in the back of statistics class. I changed jobs last July, after working for five years at Pre bon Yamone I started at Castor Fitzgerald and I am quite happy. Martha and I celebrated our fifth wedding anniversary recently. We currently share our house with three cats and other assorted animals from Martha's 2nd grade classroom. I was very sorry to hear of the passing of Brother John Lord, his humor and sincerity will be sorely missed. To all S&Ber's passing through NYC: Please give me a call, I'm usually available for a quick beer or two.

Lilian Rodriguez - new address: 3131 N. Druid Hills Road #9212, Decatur GA 30033, 404-636-8138

Anish M. Wig - 101-4 Lassen Court, Princeton NJ 08540, 609-452-7447 - After a few years of hiatus, I'm back on the scene. Apologies for being deep, deep under cover all these years. Here's an update for you all. Professional Front: In August 1995 I completed six years with Merrill Lynch. I was in the Princeton, NJ office for four years and have spent the last two years with the International Private Banking Group at their world headquarters in New York as a product manager selling offshore mutual funds and the central asset account (CMA) primarily to wealthy individuals in Latin America, Asia and the Middle East. It's a pretty exciting job and I go to Brazil, Argentina, Chile, etc. and the Far East regularly to conduct sales presentations and meet various ML bankers and brokers. In short, I'm loving it! Personal Front: I got married on October 14, 1994 to Priya, my high school "squeeze" from ten years ago back in India. The wedding ceremony was a big splash back in India with week long ceremonies and parties. We are now happily married and settled in Princeton. Tony K: Great to know you are keeping well. Sherri: What's up? I thought I saw you last summer in NYC taking the subway at 5th Ave. & 60th St. Rod Hutter: We really should do lunch one day. Tom Lynch: How's NY? Glad to know you are married and doing well too. Jodi Caroselli-Holt: I heard you are married and have a kid too, congrats. Marios Lenas: I heard you launched your own consulting firm in Cyprus. Best of luck. Michelle Harmon: Hi! Where are you, still with Dow? Doug Popovich: I heard you were buying up Kinko's outlets right and left. Jane Moyer: Greeting! Is Xerox treating you well? Gerard Louison: What's up with PSU? John Greene: Go Blue & White! Dr. Goldschmidt: Ehlan-wa-sehlan! Keff haluk en Gamay el Amerikeeya biI Qahira? Fond remembrances of your lectures. Tara: Heard you moved to Chicago. Beth Metzger: Hi! Easy on the LIRR. Jim Leous, Dave Han, John Zahor, Chris Z., and the Class of 1989: Greetings! NY-NJ area S&Ber's: Let's plan a NY get together.
