

Skull and Bones NEWSLETTER

Mary Anne Eves, Editor

August 1991

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

After nine months in California I still love it. In May I moved into a great apartment with two bedrooms. Out of town guests are welcome, but call first to check availability. The new address is:

23122 Samuel Street #28
Torrance CA 90505
home phone: 213-375-5463
work phone: 213-638-1790

I'm planning a tailgate for the PSU-USC game Sept 14. If you'll be there let me know so I can send you party details. If you need tickets give me a call. Last year's party was so good we missed kickoff!

Sorry about the delay between newsletters, but with no computer and a job with a lot more demands than my old one I've been kinda strapped for time.

I don't know what happened at University Park since I left, but when I called for money to print & mail the newsletter I was told there was $11.00 in the account. They spent all the money, even your donations that were supposed to be reserved for the newsletter. I'm very disappointed, I thought they would be more responsible. I guess they just don't realize how much the newsletter means to the alumni. Rather than let the newsletter die I put up the cash for this edition ($87.00 postage, $60.00 printing).

I hope I can count on the continued support of you S&B alumni to fund the newsletter. From this point on, please make all donation checks payable to "Mary Anne Eves". I'm going to get a third class permit so we can mail at 19.8 cents and I found a place that makes copies for 2 cents each.

And now for some personals to you guys:

Andi B. - Sorry I didn't see you in April. Next time call before you come out here. I saw Jodi Caroselli last September at my party before the PSU/USC game. As far as I know she's still in San Diego: 2770 Caminito EI Dorado, Del Mar CA 92014, 619-481-2187. Barry Puschauer - Next time call back or call me at work!!! You & Neil Weiss together in the third world! Scary. Jane Moyer & Dana Froke - I saw in the LA Times that S&B at Yale had decided to admit women. Wonder how Bush feels about this? Jim Leous - I watched The Astronomers on PBS this spring. You guys spend a lot of time drinking beer when you aren't scanning the cosmos. How is your program coming? How is Bobby? Are you guys going to post-doc at Cal Poly? Have you tracked me down a copy of Zork yet? Remember Tim Fichtner from GSA movies? I bumped into him when I was at Kinko's working on this newsletter. And in the "It's an even smaller world" category, he & DON SAVOIE are living in Redondo Beach, 10 minutes away from me! Anyone looking for Tim or Don give me a call I have their number. Bronk - Your export man Steve Eisner was a major help. Without him to explain the phone system at Commerce we would never have figured it out. Give him a big thanks and if there is ever anything we can do for him just give me a call. Dieffenbach - This guy must be very special if you can overlook the fact that Chris Redmond introduced you. Congratulations! Bring him west for a visit. Taylor-Gregg - I like the sound of that. Very literary. Hope to see you next Christmas if I get to State College. How's that PhD. coming? I'd like to walk into a bookstore someday and see Dr. Dianne Taylor-Gregg on the book jacket. Sandoe & Osborn - Congrats on your respective new homes. You'd die to see what houses go for out here. Hook & Naginey - Don't have to come to Orlando, Disney just bought what was left of Anaheim to put in Westcot Center, Epcot West. Jim Phillips & Joanne Swiderski - We really have to go out for a beer SOON. Jeff Dooling - Sorry I couldn't be at your wedding make sure you send your address & phone so I can see you when I'm back in Philly. How'd it go with Yorks at OSU? Grant Ackerman - When are you coming back to Pepperdine? I need more friends on the west coast. Pieface Gaertner - This year fly in earlier for the PSU-USC game. I don't want to miss kickoff again! So... you should be in LA for business?...I haven't heard from you?! Rich Mallon - Thanks for being the most prompt and regular with your alumni dues, next time send along some news or personals. Steve Matt - Thanks once again for the dBase help. Hope you & Terry & Elizabeth & the Bedlingtons are all well. Let me know when Terry has the new baby. If you'll be in Newtown Square at Christmas I'll be in Media, call my Dad's 215-566-2342. Tara Webb-Jones - Sorry it took so long for me to get back to you, I'm glad Desert Storm is over and that your husband made it through. I was thinking of you both. P.S. I know how you feel about cheesesteaks, they can't make hoagies out here either! Mike Bowie - How's was the Dark continent? Are Carol & Charlie Pitts still over there? Sue Gainor - Can you get me Emil & Lenny's address so I can send them the newsletter. Blair & Andre - Playing any games in L.A. or Anaheim this season? Let me know if you are in town & have any free time to get together with the local Boners. Doug Elliott - Are you still at what's left of Clark AFB? Hishta, Levine, Martz - Where are you and when are you coming to see Lincoln Savings (famous Republican tourist attraction), it's right down the street from me!

Let's get together and spit! Dana Froke - I am desirous of experiencing jockularity with you. How 'bout it? Jeff M. - Who'd have thought it?

As such, Penn State informed the Fiesta Bowl committee NOT to bother extending an invitation. We were stuck with Alabama & the U. of Louisville. Needless to say, I was bummed. To All S&Bers - I would like to extend an invitation to any and all S&B alumni to visit the Phoenix area. You have a place to stay at my house. It's great. Bob Costagliola - Are you still alive? Call or write if you get a chance.

Sue Gainor - 3317 Willow Crescent #32, Fairfax VA 22030, 703-591-9485 - After all the European travel in early 1990, things have slowed down some. I went on active duty for a month to support Operation Desert storm (Aug-Sept), which was interesting. Things at work, BDM International, are the usual. I'm headed back to Bonn, Germany in Jan. '91, but I don't expect much more travel after that. Since the defense consultant business probably isn't the career of the 90's, I'm planning on returning to school for a Master's this fall.

I'm looking into international Relations programs in the D.C. area; also investigating funding alternatives, including government internships. If nothing else the applications are keeping me busy.

Not much new, keeping a close watch on the news with a few friends in the armed services stationed at the Kuwaiti border. I just returned from 2 weeks in Hawaii (Oahu, Maui, and Kauai). It was more like an island bar tour! Nothing like Mai Tais on Waikiki. Dena - How is Boston? Are you surviving the winter? He's starting a business in N.C., a long road trip from Philly. Andre Collins - Congrats on a great season!
