A Letter from the Editor

Well, I don't have to worry about living in a little nowhere town in the California desert. The company I work for bought the two-person ad agency who have been working for us and eliminated my job in the process. The agency made 80% of their income from commissions on the ads they placed for us. My boss offered them free rent at our new larger facility, to pay their life & health insurance and they get to keep the commissions with no overhead. Corporately, a wise move, personally it sucks. Especially after I told him in June that I really didn't want to move and he begged me to give him at least six months. I actually committed to a year. I'm angry that I spent 7 weekends this summer house hunting in Temecula when I could have been sightseeing in CA and looking for another job. He did say he would give me the same allowance to move back to PA that he would to move to Temecula. I also get the feeling that he'll cover the whole move no matter what it costs.

There is a small chance that I will find another job here in LA, I'm going to give myself 'til the end of August. A friend is also trying to find me something in Las Vegas. But, chances are I'll be moving home w/ Dad in Media, PA until I can find another job. So, if any of you have any prospects in the mid-Atlantic region or would like a resume PLEASE call, I'll be in my apartment in LA until 9/15 Daytime: 310-638-1790: Evening 310-375-5463, After that you can reach me for a couple days at 310-791-7290

No matter where I end up you can send newsletter stuff to my Dad's house until you hear otherwise, he will forward it to me:

58 Barren Road
Media PA 19063

If you need to reach me by after 9/21 try information first, I'm going to get my own number as soon as I can. The number at my Dad's is 215-566-2342, but Dad is very hard of hearing and will probably not understand you, even though he will say yes a lot. This is why Dad is glad to have me come home.

Dianne Taylor, Chris & Pam Calkins, Pat Conway, John Bell, anyone in State College, I need your help. I have heard from Jeanne Snyder at the Alumni Assoc. that Gerard Louison is working with them to update the S&B address list. I have called him several times to get a copy of the list and to offer my help. He has not returned any of my calls. I talked to Steve Signor (S&B Pres '91-92) several times last year, he promised to send me membership lists for the Class of Spring '91, Fall '91, and Spring '92. I never got them. I'd really like to include these people in the newsletter mailing list but I can't get anyone to send me names and addresses. He also promised to write something for the newsletter on S&B news at University Park, again nothing ever came. Please, please, please, someone in State College call, write, fax, mail! Thanks.

Does anyone have Tara Webb-Jones' address? She's not in Germany anymore as far as I can tell, and the Alumni Assoc. doesn't have an address for her either. I also can't get Courtney Pinkney's address from the Alumni Assoc.

As for my personal life, read the previous statements. By the way, what IS that creature they elected as USG President this year? I notice he referred to us past USG prezesses as "butt heads...who had short hair and wore suits". I was going to be offended at the thought that he assumed all of the past USG presidents were male, until I realized he spent my entire term of office in jail for drug possession or being expelled from Penn State, so how could he know. Jane Moyer: I miss you, but I comfort myself with the fact that I am slowly amassing all of your belongings with the "promise" of returning them So, want to loan me your car next? Jim Phillips: I know I still owe you a letter. Can you wait until after June 10? You're going to have to. Tom Lynch: Write! Judy Falce: See Tom Lynch message.
