

Skull and Bones NEWSLETTER

November 1990

Mary Anne Eves, Editor

Jeff McCarty, President

EVES LEAVES PENN STATE TAKES NEWSLETTER TO WEST COAST

This will be the last S&B Newsletter for a few months. I start work on Monday, Dec. 3, 1990, for the Tamura Corporation of America, the U.S. branch of a Japanese electronics company. My new address as of December 1, 1990 will be:

3450 Garnet Street #210, Torrance CA 90503

I don't know my phone number yet, if you need me call information. I'll be listed as M.A. Eves. I've applied for a post office box in Torrance and will try to set up a third class postal permit from out there so we can continue to mail the newsletter at a reduced rate. (Pat Conway, I may need some help with the federal bureaucracy, I'll be in touch.) Send your response forms to my new address and look for another newsletter sometime this spring.

S & B NEWS

Jodi Caroselli - new address: 2770 Caminito El Dorado, Del Mar CA 92014, 619-481-2187.

Bill Cluck - Still surviving as a Philadelphia lawyer representing members of the regulated community (we used to call them polluters). However, I'm getting that old political itch - Mayor of Philly? Although the boys lost to USC we all had a terrific time in L.A. Great party, Mary Anne - did my sitcom writer friend ever get a hold of you? Homecoming was a blast! I love it when we beat Temple - 'Hey, it's Saturday night'. Joanne A.: B-2 or not B-2, that is the question. Thought of you while we were stomping Alabama. Chris & Pam: Put me on your Christmas list. I want all the details. JohnO & Jackie: Maybe I'll try a repeat performance in January. Lisa Goodison Faden: Keep up the good work in law school. There are too few really good lawyers. Karen Naidoff: I'll call back soon. Mark Berg: How about an update, we miss ya! Leni Barch: Ditto! Dianne Taylor: Give me a ring, we got to catch up.

Kate Cooney - new address: 21 Springfield Ave. Apt 8-H, Cranford NJ 07016 - After 4 years of traveling around the world for the state of New Jersey I recently changed jobs (a new Democratic administration was the motivating factor). As Manager of International Operations for Mutual Benefit Life I am now developing new markets for our insurance products - which means preying on unsuspecting and uninsured Koreans, Spaniards, and anyone else who will let us into their country. Recently moved to a new apartment after spending last year in a long distance relationship in Hong Kong. I'm now staying close to home and enjoying it. Almost nesting but not quite. Maury: If you still live in the near vicinity, give me a call. I'd love to hear if you are still alive. Beth S.: Sorry you couldn't make Labor Day, maybe Homecoming? Lisa H.: I hear you're expecting - congrats! Sue G.: Congrats on your awards - we're proud of you! Roger & Kathy S.: We missed you on Labor Day; hope to see you soon. Adam L.: I never thought I'd see the day - it must be love.

Maria Demaree -new address: 156 Pinecrest Lane, King of Prussia PA 19403, 215-265-3622.

Dona DeNaro - I work in the adjustments Dept. of Southwest Bank. Mostly I research & fix other people's dumb mistakes. I love the job but the pay is awful so I'll be revising the old resume very soon. I live 10 minutes from the Rolling Rock Brewery but I never drink that stuff anymore (Believe it or not!). There is a definite shortage of enlightened, open-minded, thought-provoking conversationalists around here. For example, I live with a foam-cutter. Matt Morgan: Are you still alive? Margie Utt: Are you still a Deadhead? I just named my new puppy Iko. Mary Anne Eves: Thanks for not giving up on me. I'll be up to tell your fortune soon.

Mary Anne Eves -the main news is above, but here are some messages for old bones. Dona DeNaro: Bring those tarot cards to Venice Beach, we'll set up a table and make money. Venice is a very weird place. Jeff Glazier: When Eli is old enough I'll take him to Disneyland. Send me some photos of him, I gotta see if he looks like you or Carrie. Bill Cluck: Please send me reprints of the pictures you took at the party and the Southern Cal game. This will get you leniency when the National Enquirer calls me looking for photos of you, Mr. Mayor. I talked to your writer friend at the USC game but I forget her name & need her address. Now that I'll be living out there I'll arrange for her to meet Nat and maybe get an in at Fox or with Steven Botchco. John Hook: Gorman says you sold your boat. Too bad I never got a ride in it. Black Jack: Let me know if you go south again. I think I've got the newsletter under control, thanks for the offer of help. Broadway Doug Popovich: Any Kinko's in the South Bay area? Can you arrange a professional discount on newsletter printing? How about laser writer output? I'm getting a MAC but no printer yet. Ken Hong: Philly will be OK soon, I hear Frank Rizzo is planning a comeback. Anish is in Princeton, 201-846-3979. I don't remember when you sent a check. Don't worry about it, send one in '91. Blair Thomas: Initiation isn't the same without your jokes. If you guys play the Rams or Raiders in L.A. give me a call! John Zahor: I think I supplied a lot of replies to stuff in this newsletter. Hope this doesn't upset you too much! It's about time YOU sent in a response, I don't even have your Maryland address! Is this being forwarded from Boston? Swiderski, Phillips, Caroselli, Landis & Pickens, Saba, Calkins & Wheeland, Smith & Johnson: See you guys soon! Pieface Gaertner: Fiesta Bowl? Party at your place? Keep me posted! TO EVERYONE ELSE: If you are in the Los Angeles area please give me a call!!!

Arnold Gasche - Elected as President of the Board of Trustees of the Princeton Ballet, a "major impact" organization in New Jersey. Bit of a stretch for an engineer.

Abby Greene - I have been working for Mobil since I graduated in Dec. '88. I work in the Marketing/Accounting office in the Great Valley Corporate Center, right across from the Penn State Graduate Center. Life is good in Philly. No exciting changes to report, although I wish there were. ALL LA's: Hope to see you at reunion this time around! Pat Dugan: Long time, no see. Hope all's well. John Greene: Nice to see you again, as always! Tony Knific: can't believe you are still there! here's to Fall '88.

Lisa Goodison Faden - Married life is great! Second year of law school is not so great. Who said it gets easier? To all my legal friends: Any help getting a summer associate position for 1991 would be great. I did well my 1st year, I promise not to embarrass you. Pam & Chris: Congrats! Wishing you all the best. Bill Cluck: How do you manage to stay awake reading the environmental laws? The codes are awful.

Judy Falce - new address: 1126 25th Street NW, Washington DC 20037, 202-223-5951 - George Washington Univ. grad student in Public Administration. I'd drop out in an instant if I could find a real way to support myself (besides student loans, that is!). I spent a SUPER summer in the New Hampshire lakes region with Tom Lynch's girlfriend Kelly (a Who). I moved to DC in the beginning of September. I LOVE it here, but I miss PSU too. Susie, Rosie, Melissa, Steph: How are my little PSU wenches? Missing me, are you?! The feeling is mutual. Don't be too geeky.

Jack Gorman - Still slaving away in the graphics biz. 1990 has been poor but we are looking forward to the recession - bad for retail, good for printing! Libby & I are out of the 'newly dead' stage and into the 'Honey, let's travel, buy a house, refinish antiques' phase. Despite the fact that we have no time for this kind of stuff, we're happy and looking forward to the coming hockey season and another winter in 'Ice Station Erie'. Clutch Cargo: Congrats on the 'new little blonde girl'. Hish: I've got a new idea for a business venture - a diner where all the patrons have to sing for their food. Those who only know the chorus will not be fed. Joey M.: We should co-author a book, Stupid Things We Have Done, before the effects of clean living fully take hold. Good seeing you at the Texas game. Stefan: You have absolutely no morals but a great future! Nice talking to you too. Paul Blahusch: Rooney & I were very impressed with your 'vanishing into thin air' routine! However, you missed another try at running up his bar tab. Good seeing you.

John Greene - 641 Marjorie Mae St., State College PA 16803, 814-867-6190; home: 385 Argo Street, Youngstown OH 44509, 216-799-9407 - Janyne & Tara: Where are you? I'm out of here in December! I don't know where I'm heading but I'd love to keep in touch. Give me a call or drop me a line and let me know how and what you're doing. Bruce: What's going on? How's your mon? Just kidding. Just wanted to say "Hi" and wish you well. Keep in touch! Can you say "Pahellenic"? Andy B.: Miss ya! Tony & I wanted to know if we are still sperm? Jane & Dana: Rumor has it the Diceman is going to be the new Affirmative Action Director at PSU. Here's to you..., just kidding. Blair: Love you guy! Send money...large bills! The salesman (me) is going strong (5 alive).

Ken Hong -Still enjoying life doing Public Relations with Beach Advertising in Philly. The city's not doing so well, though. Hoping someday to move to a healthier locale, maybe Kennebunkport, Maine or somewhere up there. Still looking for a reason to head back for another degree, thinking about getting a Masters in Watercolor or Fashion Illustration. If anyone out there is specializing in these areas, let me know. Checking out the ballet, orchestra and theaters in the area, stuff I missed while hanging out at PSU. One of my roommates is a Penn State Who. Haven't been able to get much out of him, though. Gonna check later this evening to see if he talks in his sleep. Judy Oleski: Greeting from me and your brother-in-law, Dan. Trying to get him some freelance jobs in the area. Anish: You still in this country? If so, give me a call 215-664-6419. Ben & Steve Siegel: Study hard. Judy F.: I wish I wuz in your shoes down there in DC. Beth Metzger: Sign me up for a free check-up, okay? Karen Rosenthal: My roomie & I will drop by soon.

Bruce Kent - I was promoted to a district manager position on 10/5/90. I'm waiting to see where I will be placed Anyone want a great deal on a house in Johnstown? Alexandra is 8 months old and totally devoid of any fear or willingness to accept guidance.

Tony Knific -138 S. Atherton St. #712, State College PA 16801 - Those of you who know me will be utterly shocked to learn that after 7 years of not so hard labor at this institution, I will receive my parole, er, Bachelor's Degree in History on Jan. 5, 1991. I can't believe it either. There HAS to be a catch somewhere. I guess I'll leave and get a job ...wait a minute, may be I'll change my major again -only kidding, heh, heh, heh. Sherri: I beat you out of here! Heh, heh, heh! John Za-whore: I've decided on my future employment. I plan on opening a combined clutch repair & rent-a-car service, so don't be afraid to visit. Judy Fal-chay: Find your I.D.yet? Heh, heh, heh. Jane Moyer & Dana Froke: Just want to say Hello to my favorite Marxist Feminists. Anish: No snide comments, just thought I'd say Hello. Dr. G.: How is England? Looking forward to seeing you back here in December. Class of Fall '88: Hi to everyone except John Greene, who is sitting next to me while I write this.

Bill & Mary Pickens Landis - Bill is a product manager for McGraw Labs making safety I.V. products for hospitals. finishing an MBA at Pepperdine, and wind surfing every spare moment. Mary is a regional Sales Rep for General Parametrics selling computer hardware & software across the western U.S. Saba: Now that you've jacked up gas prices. how 'bout we play some golf out your way? Margie Utt, Doug. P.: Vive le Village. But Doug, do you have to wash your hand in the gutter? Glenn Rougier: We loved the pizza, Bill hasn't stopped talking about it. Andy & Gail Rusnak: Congrats to the happy home owners. "Nose candy & whores", the benefits of brokering? We never knew! Lydia Owen: Are you in Ithaca, or what? Rich Pirrotta: You'll turn into a couch potato unless you start getting involved, try it you'll like it.

Adam Levinson - Blue Mountain Spring Water, 1840 S. 19th Street, Harrisburg PA 17104

Suzanne Lord - new address: 4950 68th Street Apt. B, San Diego CA 619-668-0460.

Tom Lynch - new address: P.O. Box 1901 Richmond VA 23215, 804-353-1901 ext 55 - I'm working for Sigma Phi Epsilon's National Fraternity headquartered in Richmond, VA. I will be starting with Price Waterhouse in Manhattan this June. My region for Sig Ep is North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia & D.C. I love travelling right now, at the end of this year it might be a different story. Homecoming '90 was a lot of fun. I'm glad I got a chance to see everyone. Caroselli: I'll be a PW initiate soon. Rod & Tara: Hi Guys. Scott, Stephanie & Rosie: Have fun with Marathon and keep up the great and sometimes unrewarding job. Susie: Hope you are having fun and USG is going well, no more problems. Anish & Michelle Harmon: I'll see you in the Big Apple soon. Judy: You stud. Scott Gob: I'm glad I had a chance to see you at Homecoming, I look forward to seeing you again. G.K.: Keep putting out those fires at Acacia (literally). Craig Cuyar: I hope teaching is going well. Check your fly. Brian Kred: Maybe we'll connect next Homecoming buddy!

Greg Martin - new address: 1210 W. Abingdon Drive, Alexandria VA 22314, 703-836-4832 - I've been in the pentagon for 12 months. Walking into the Pentagon was probably the biggest let-down of my life (well,...). Very unimpressive. But, I was promoted to Captain on 8 Sept. so I'm making the big bucks. Priscilla got out of the A.F. in July. She's working for a local hospital and is hoping the emergency in Kuwait doesn't call her back in. Kyle is over 2, he talks a lot and is an all-around great son. He says "Go Penn State" He also looks just like me! Bill Scruitsky: Write & tell me what you've been up to.

Walter Mosley - I am now working for the District Attorney's office in Brooklyn as a para-legal. I also write for the "Daily Challenge" as I explore the entertainment arena. I'm a manager for a musical production group. SoulJa is the name, coming to a record store near you. To my line brothers & sisters of the bone: Stay safe. For those of you who I did not see at Homecoming: I hope to see you soon. Give me a call or write (718-789-8677).

G.K. Nelson - Keeping busy: Advisor to accounting majors, ODK, Acacia, Accounting club (now 40 years old!), charity work, and travel.

Judy Oleski - I'm still working on a #?X%## PhD. in psychology. Classes are over in May - yea! Then residency for a year, then internship for a year, then licensure exams, then I'm sprung! Still happily married with two lovely felines, Scout & Nelson. Terrell Jones: You're still my hero, I miss you.

Karen Rosenthal - Beth Metzger: I miss you so much, save some space on your calendar over Christmas break. Steve Siegel: Please send me your new address, I want to stay in touch. Jodi Crombie: When are you coming to PSU, I need a Yodie fill. Kelly Maloney: I hear you have an excellent hotel job in D.C. I'm an HRIM major graduating in May and would love to move to D.C., any connections?

Tami Worley - I'm a substitute teacher in the Philadelphia area. Working with kids is a lot of fun. I traveled quite a bit this summer with the U.S. Lacrosse team. We went to California, Washington, Canada, and Colorado. Hello to everyone, I hope I will get to see some of you at PSU this fall.