

Skull and Bones NEWSLETTER

December 1988

Mary Anne Eves, Editor

Kris Zwyczewicz, President

ADDRESS LIST - This issue is too full of newspaper articles to include the new address list so this gives aU of you an extra two months to move somewhere and send in your new address. We'll send out the address list in the February newsletter. If anyone needs an address in a hurry for holiday greetings or whatever call me (Mary Anne Eves) at 814-238-6866 or 813-863-1873.

THE CASE OF THE EXTRA SWEATSHIRTS - Greg from Happy Valley Promotions called me to explain that the sweatshirts they sold this summer had been ordered by people in Skull & Bones and never picked up. He said two or three years ago we placed an order for sweatshirts, before we got all the money from the people who ordered, and we arranged it so these unpaid people could just go into Happy Valley and pay for their sweatshirts. I remember when we did this. Some of you people who ordered sweatshirts never picked up your order! That's why Happy Valley sold off the extras. Greg apologized for any trouble this may have caused us and he promised to contact me if they end up with extra S&B stuff in the future.

Consensus was that it would probably be difficult to copyright the Skull & Crossbones since it is so generic a symbol, however we may want to consider copyrighting the Skull with the keystone and the thing inside it (more about this below). I was also advised to check with the Corporation Bureau in Harrisburg to see if S&B has already been registered with them.

S&B: THE ORAL HISTORY PROJECT - Speaking of the little thing inside the keystone, there is a lot about S&B that we don't know, we have no records earlier than 1973. A few years ago the Alumni Assoc. gave us a printout of all the people they have coded as being in S&B. I would like to find a time in early spring 1989 to invite all these people back to PSU to fill us in on what S&B was like for them. A great many people on this list are still in Centre County, many work on campus, so hopefully, we should get a good turnout. I'd like to use the Alumni Lounge or the Penn State Room and set up video cameras (Hesketh, are you listening?) to tape the discussion. If people can't make it we'd ask them to write down everything they can remember about S&B. This is a big project and I'm going to need lots of help from the active brothers and sisters so...if anyone is willing to lend a hand call me (Mary Anne) and we'll get together after Christmas.

RESPONSES TO THE SEPTEMBER 1988 NEWSLETTER

Holly Allen - 5326 Camelot Drive, Fairfield OH 45014. Hello to those of you from around Fall '83/Spring '84. Congratulations, see you at the wedding! Hish: I know I probably used up my quota of contacts for the next five years, but give me a call someday anyway.

Todd Becker - 4431 Hunt Club #D-2, Ypsilanti MI 48197.

Paula "Bees" Berardinelli - After 3 years as a health educator at NC State, I have retired and returned to grad school. I'm working on a doctorate in Training & development at NC State and getting a minor in International Health Education at UNC Chapel Hill. (Jambo rafiki! Habari za jioni?) I'm also an associate with Health mates a worksite health promotion consulting firm in Durham. Covering the research triangle area of North Carolina is keeping me busy. Any "Bone siblings" living or working in the area give Jeff & me a call, 919-851-4601.

Kira Bowen - 2113 Hamilton Place Str., Opelika AL 368001 - Just starting a new job, Assistant Professor of Plant Pathology at Auburn Univ.

Bill Cluck - I am an associate at a large Philly law firm. I graduated from Temple in May '88. It's nice to finally have a real job. South Street (where the hippies meet!) is a block from my house. I'm still a Dead Head. Laurie Dieffenbach: If I knew that was your roommate I would have let her get that tattoo. And I'm not getting old, I'm getting better. Steve Reeves: Clients? What clients? Jeff Dooling: What's up? Jack Gorman: marriage? Beth Saylor:: You too? Vicki Sandoe: You too! Joanne Swiderski: Missed you in LA. John Hook: See you this winter. Chris Calkins: Get in touch. You too Ellie Sternberg. Leni Barch: Give me a call. To Hishta: Lick Bush in '88.

Tom Corcoran - 265 Racheal St., Pleasanton CA 94566 - I have just accepted a new position with FMC Corp. as District Sales Mngr. on the west coast. The transfer should be complete by Dec. 1. Betsy and I are expecting our first baby on March 17th, that's the luck of the Irish!

Brian Del Buono - I'm in my second year as a Research Fellow/Instructor in the Dept. of Biochemistry at Boston Univ. School of Medicine. Research is going well, and I'm teaching basic biochem, biomedical sciences, and medical microbiology to undergrads and med students. The undergrads & grads are much better at PSU than the ones I've had here. Sandie & I are still bringing up Matthew who is 2 years old now and giving us quite a workout. As most of you can imagine, football season was tough up here. I know we can't win them all, but I work with someone from Rutgers and my sister goes to West Va. (scum), I still sing JoePa though! Mike O'Connell: Just wait 'til 1992, Bush slime! Do you know what the war movie about Dan Quayle in Vietnam is called? "Full Dinner Jacket". Oh well, I've still got both houses of Congress. Suzie McConnell: Way to go sister, you were my favorite TV star! Devin Malone: So, when are you coming to visit me in your old home town? To All Boners: Come visit us for PSU/BC next fall, we'll get together, beers in hand, and sing "Susie" for them!

Laurie Dieffenbach - 11 Waverly Place #4N, New York NY 10003 - I'll receive my MA in May '89 in Poetics (huh?) from NYU; then I hope to study Curriculum Development either here in NYC or back at PSU. I'm finally living by myself, a trend I hope to continue! To All My Friends: I promise not to move again for the next 6 months, this is a limited time offer. James: Good luck in CA. I'll see you when I visit Mon. Save me a spot on the beach. Debbie R.: Glad to see you haven't fallen off the face of the earth. Drop me a line.

Mary Anne Eves - Working at PSU Dept. of Publications and spending much of my free time and all of my money going to the same weddings that Cluck is going to. Plus, I get to go to wedding showers and baby showers too! But I love to shop and I love to see old friends so I'm not complaining. Bruce Kent: You chauvinist pig, your entire courtship has been chronicled in this newsletter and never have you mentioned your wife's name! I'm too liberated to call her Mrs. Bruce Kent! What's her name, and when are you two coming to PSU for a visit? Debbie Riebman-Bloch: My cousin flew into Nice and went south into Italy instead of north to Paris. The cash arrived safely, thanks. Jack & Libby: Sorry I didn't make it to the Brewery after the reception, I was too worn out from the 'Skellar, Phyrst and Brick House the night before and Springhead was too blasted to be allowed out in public. Martz, Hish & Stefan: It was great to see you guys, remember to come up for a Thursday night happy hour soon! And Hish, how come I don't get conference calls anymore? Laurie Dief. "I'll call you after Christmas and let you know about New year's Eve!

Rick & Lise Ortenberg Glazier - Rick just started with a private law firm after 5 years with Federal District Court Justices and 2 years as a public defender. Civil & criminal litigation. Lise is , active running a neighborhood whole foods cooperative, working with La Leche League, PTA and the synagogue. The kids are wonderful. Philip is 7 1/2 and loves soccer and our new dog. Megan is 4 and is a "pistol", we'll let her date when she is 30. Rick also finds time to coach Philip's soccer team and teach Sunday School. Regards to everyone we ran around with and then some. Please let us know if you are traveling along 1-95 in North Carolina so we can make plans to see you! Beachball Moore: Where are you?

Jack Gorman - I am now working for Davico, a legal/commercial printer in downtown Houston. I am enjoying it thus far even though regular haircuts and shaving is required. I may have found a niche here and hopefully will be able to be moved up quickly. I hate the 39 mile commute ( it takes 50 minutes) which probably breaks the hearts of those of you who commute to NYC. I miss the Steelers, Bucs, and PA very much and would love some snow (the cold kind, Hishta). Otherwise, living on the water agrees with me and the wife just fine. Libby & I were married on 11/26/88 in State College. It was a fun, but traumatic experience.

John Hook & Jackie Naginey - As of Dec. 10 1988: 4655 Cason Cove Drive #2821, Orlando FL 32811.

Bob Karp - 609 Kings Croft, Cherry Hill NJ 08034.

Bruce Kent - 147 Berkey Drive, Johnstown PA 15904. After surviving Hurricane Gilbert on our Mexican honeymoon, my new wife and I moved into our new home. Being a home owner takes more time than we have to give. Mary Weaver: Ever since I got married I have had no recollection of my former life. Sorry. Drop me a line if you have a chance. Madonna misses you!

Suzanne Lord - 3639 Caminito Carmel Landing, San Diego CA 92130 - Hello to all of you OTI's out there. If you find yourselves in San Diego be sure to give me a call.

Jennifer Moebus Stadler - 146 Sharpstead Lane, Gaithersburg MD 20878 - I'm still writing for Marriott; my publication has been expanded to a bi-monthly so I have job security for the moment. I'd love to go back to school, but who has the time. Happily married after four months, Dave and I are house/lot-hunting. Suzie M.: way to go! we were cheering for you all the way! Cain's had a huge sign for you (I forgot you are a Pittsburgher). Ellen: Deanna called, we all need to go out. Call me soon! Flounder: Stads & I wish you and your new bride all the best! We pass through Johnstown every now & then, hope to see you sometime! To Spring of '87 class: Sorry I missed you all at Homecoming... hope to catch you soon.

Mark Pulos - I've been Sales Mngr. for 2 years at Ormco in Glendora, GA. I finished my MBA at Pepperdine U. in August '88. Still living in Southern Cal and loving it, happily married to Tracy Meyer (Parmi Nous '83, who says mixed marriages don't work!).

Debbie Riebman-Bloch - 42, allee de las Pepiniere, 92150 Suresnes FRANCE - Still crunching numbers at the OECD, and working part-time on a masters in International Relations with Boston University. I got married this summer and moved to a house in the suburbs west of Paris. Any visitors in France or Europe give us a call, from the U.S.: 33-1-40-99-92-14.

Linda Rovder - I've finally crossed the last hurdle in my legal education, I passed the bar exam and as of Nov. 10 I am a real lawyer. I work for a small firm in Johnstown and have been concentrating mostly in the domestic area (but don't call me Arnie Becker). I was thrown into court almost immediately and I'm really enjoying my new status. Life in Johnstown is not as bad as I expected, which just goes to show its not where you are but what you do while you are there that counts. Believe it or not, there are single men in this town, one in particular that I have been spending a lot of time with. I also joined the Jaycees and have found working with them to be very reminiscent of student government days at PSU. Leslie H.: Give me a call the next time you plan to be in Pittsburgh. I'd love to get together! Dave L.: Congratulations! I'm glad to hear you're doing so well! Ellen F.: Karen Lone of the you know "Who's", gasp, says Hello! Libby & Jack: Best of luck to both of you!

Joe Seuffer - Joan and I are still busy with two children, the business and refinishing an old farm house.

Luke Taiclet -142 Spring Street, State College (not Houserville) PA 16801 - Professionally my new appointment is Supervisor, Project Desk, Office of Physical Plant at PSU. Personally, I was married on labor Day weekend to Ann Michalski (yes, 2 Penn State graduates!) Laurie Dieffenbach: Three address changes in three weeks, I'm beginning to think you are trying to hide from us!

Hail to all ye Grotto Masters of yore (you know who you are)! I'm still minding the pit - The Grotto Master.
